HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

The History of Father's Day in the United States

There are two stories of when the first Father's Day was celebrated. According to some accounts, the first Father's Day was celebrated in Washington state on June 19, 1910. A woman by the name of Sonora Smart Dodd came up with the idea of honouring and celebrating her father while listening to a Mother's Day sermon at church in 1909. She felt as though mothers were getting all the acclaim while fathers were equally deserving of a day of praise (She would probably be displeased that Mother's Day still gets the lion's share of attention).

Sonora's dad was a quiet man. William Smart, a veteran of the Civil War, was left a widower when his wife died while giving birth to their sixth child. He went on to raise the six children by himself on their small farm in Washington. To show her appreciation for all the hard work and love William gave to her and her siblings, Sonora thought there should be a day to pay homage to him and other dads like him. She initially suggested June 5th, the anniversary of her father's death to be the designated day to celebrate Father's Day, but due to some bad planning, the celebration in Spokane, Washington was deferred to the third Sunday in June.

The other story of the first Father's Day in America happened all the way on the other side of the country in Fairmont, West Virginia on July 5, 1908. Grace Golden Clayton suggested to the minister of the local Methodist church that they hold services to celebrate fathers after a deadly mine explosion killed 361 men.

While Father's Day was celebrated locally in several communities across the country, unofficial support to make the celebration a national holiday began almost immediately. William Jennings Bryant was one of its staunchest proponents. In 1924, President Calvin "Silent Cal" Coolidge recommended that Father's Day become a national holiday. But no official action was taken. In 1966, Lyndon B. Johnson, through an executive order, designated the third Sunday in June as the official day to celebrate Father's Day. However, it wasn't until 1972, during the Nixon administration, that Father's Day was officially recognized as a national holiday.

Poeżija għal Jum il-Missier

F'dan il-Jum fix-xahar ta' Gunju
Missier aħna nduru lejki
Biex nuruk l-istima tagħna
Xi ftit iktar niġu ħdejk.
Jixraq li matul is-sena
Lil Missier irroddu ġieħ
Huwa t-tmun minn tal-familja
Kull għajnuna nsibu fih.
Sa minn kmieni huwa jbakkar
Jaqla' l-ħobża ta' kuljum
Għall-imħabba ta' uliedu
Jagħmel dan kemm ħaj idum.
Xieraq illi f'dil-ġurnata
Rigal ċkejken aħna ntuk
Mill-qalb ħiereġ f'din il-ġhodwa
Imħabbitna b'hekk nuruk.
Dil-ġurnata ukoll tiġi
Biex insellmu lill-Missier
Illi l-illum telaq, ħalliena,
Seta' kien f'saħħtu daqs plier!
Għax il-Mewt ma għandhiex ħniena
Tagħha l-mingell jaqta' sew –
Fqar u għonja ġew u marru
Dan is-snin dejjem urew.
Jekk l-omm hija l-kolonna
Illi tirted il-familja
Fil-missier żgur l-ulied kollha
Ta' kull qawwa jsibu l-milja.
Nirringrazzjawk , għaziż Missier
Ilqa' tagħna l-ħajr sinċier.
